Kieran Donoghue ceo of Fdys gave an update of their work with the youth of the county . They have set up a Popup Coffee shop in New Ross to engage with the youths of the area who are also anxious to have a youth club in New Ross

In general there is a drug problem in Wexford and it was important to engage with 11- 20 year olds about the damage drugs can do to their health. It's important that youths are informed engaged and supported. The FYDS hope to set up a popup café in Wexford town .

The JPC need to support and encourage young people to engage and the JPC need to support youth workers.
